Sophisticated Wedding Entertainment

Why engage David's services on your wedding day? I'm sure you have been to a wedding as a guest and stood around thinking, "When's the food?" The reality is that there will be a lot of 'downtime' for your guests during your day's events. This could be the time immediately after the ceremony, whilst the photographs are being taken or between the courses during the meal. This can be an uncomfortable time as many of your guests will also be meeting for the first time. Instead, David provides sophisticated entertainment involving the guests in memorable and fun performance pieces.

As David is a renowned large-scale illusionist (as seen on Britain's Got Talent), the performances your guest will witness are not just limited to small card tricks (like you may have seen before). David performs full-scale illusions! He has even created many effects that have been performed on television by DYNAMO and appeared on numerous TV magic specials himself.

Conferences & Trade Shows

David Penn will Energise and complement your conference perfectly. Highly respected on the conference circuit, David uses his unique set of skills to demonstrate how to change people's perceptions as well as energising your delegates at the start of an important session.

David was awarded The British Champion of Illusion, so his performance is naturally entertaining and engaging. However, when you are invited behind the curtain, and David lets you in on some of the techniques and strategies used in a magical performance, it also becomes inspiring.

David Penn can also act as your host for the day. He can introduce each keynote speaker, summarise key points and maintain energy levels throughout your delegates' experience. If you want something really different that compliments your conference perfectly, David is acknowledged as one of the leading energiser entertainers in Europe today.

David is recognised as a leading exponent in trade show infotainment. He can create a unique magical presentation for your exhibition stand that will stop delegates in their tracks and deliver your message whilst entertaining them with sophisticated close-up tech magic and illusions. As a result, David will attract delegates to your stand and, most importantly - make them stay!

Close Up Magic & VIP Parlour Show

David Penn was awarded 'The Magic Circle Close Up Magician of the Year', which is the highest level of honour a performer can receive for this genre of magic. David has performed close up magic on several television shows, including Astounding Celebrities on ITV1, Freaky on CH4 and The Sorcerers Apprentice on BBC1. Because this style of entertainment is performed at such close quarters, David can move freely amongst your guests to add amazement and excitement to a drinks reception, as well as entertaining at tables during dinner, covering any dead spots at your event.

The VIP Parlour Show retains the intimate feel of close up magic but is instead performed in a private room with the audience seated. This VIP atmosphere makes it ideal as a treat for special guests, essential clients, or exceptional staff members. Your guests get a front-row seat to see the incredible sleight of hand that won David the title of 'British Magic Champion' as well as the sophisticated entertainment witnessed by Her Majesty The Queen at Buckingham Palace.
